

Wednesday January 7 - Saturday February 15

In 40 Days of Prayer and Fasting, let us center our lives on God in 2026 and this Year of 40 by drawing closer to God, depending on God, dwelling on God, and devoting ourselves to the mission of God. As a church, may we grow deeper in God, get desperate for God, and go make disciples for God!

In prayer, we access the power of God. In fasting, we advance faith in God.

Prayer

Prayer is personally communing and communicating with our personal God. Set aside specific time(s) to get away from distractions, and have intentional, focused prayer with God and be in His Word.¹ And in free moments throughout the day—in your car, at your office, at school, in the middle of situations—learn to pray.

Fasting

Fasting is when a Christian voluntarily gives up something (often food) to focus on God. You could choose to fast for the whole day, for one meal a day or week, or from something like coffee or sweets over the next 40 days. You may modify the fast (if you aren't able to fast from food or want to choose something other than food) by fasting from something like social media, television, videogames, projects, etc., and instead spend that time with God when you would do those things.

¹ Unless otherwise stated, all Scripture in this guide is from the Christian Standard Bible (CSB).
